The time period for reply, if any, is set in the attached communication.

Office Action Summary	Application No. 10/563,902	Applicant(s) BERMAN, STEPHEN
	Examiner Khoa D. Huynh	Art Unit 3751

-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 30 July 2007.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 8-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hohlbein et al. (2005/0186014).

Regarding claim 8, the Hohlbein et al. reference discloses an instrument (Figs. 8 & 9). The instrument includes a barrel (constitute by the interior space) having one end (constitute by the left portion as shown in Fig. 8) that is adjacent a tip (constitute by the tip end portion about 14 as shown in Fig. 1) of said instrument, the barrel having bladders (at 40) build into the barrel, and a pumping mechanism (Fig. 9) for pumping air into the bladders to facilitate better gripping by a user at the one end of the instrument, wherein the pumping mechanism includes an airway passage (at 82) and a one-way valve (at 84) for air to enter from the pumping mechanism into the bladders. In addition, the instrument and its tip are capable of being used as a writing instrument for writing on a surface such as a sand surface.

Regarding claim 9, as schematically shown in Fig. 9, the pumping mechanism appears to be an integrated clicker (at 74) and a pump handle (constitute by the portion which housed elements 82, 86, 78).

Regarding claim 10, as schematically shown in Fig. 9, the pumping mechanism includes a pump handle (constitute by the portion which housed elements 82, 86, 78) that is separate from the clicker (at 74).

Regarding claims 11 and 12, as schematically shown in the cross-section of Fig. 9, the bladders are formed of material having a rubber-like property or a rubber material.

Regarding claim 13, a release mechanism (86) is located on the side of the instrument for release excess air.

Response to Amendment

3. Applicant's amendment, filed on 07/30/2007, to the pending claims is insufficient to distinguish the claimed invention from the cited prior art or overcome the rejections as discussed above.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 07/30/2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant asserts that Hohlbein et al. does not teach a writing instrument with a writing tip. See Remarks section, page 4-5. The examiner disagrees.

As stated in the above rejection, Hohlbein et al. instrument is capable of being used to write on a surface such as a sand surface using the tip of the instrument.

Art Unit: 3751

Furthermore, even though Hohlbein et al. tip may have different structures from the tip used in the present invention, such alleged structural differences are not a germane since the claims do not recite limitations regarding the structures of the writing tip distinguished over the tip in the Hohlbein et al. reference.

5. Also applicant's arguments filed on 07/30/2007 to the pending claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new grounds of rejection as discussed supra.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
